"Tom Robinson's case, is something that goes to the essence of a man's conscience – Scout, I couldn't go to church and worship God if I didn't try to help that man." (Atticus Finch)

"I certainly am. I do my best to love everybody... I am hard put, sometimes – baby, it's never an insult to be called what somebody thinks is a bad name. It just shows you how poor that person is, it doesn't hurt you." (Atticus Finch)

"I wanted you to see something about her – I wanted you to see what real courage is, instead of getting the idea that courage is a man with a gun in his hand. It's when you know you're licked before you begin but you begin anyway and you see it through no matter what. You rarely win, but sometimes you do." (Atticus Finch)

"...folks don't like to have somebody around knowing more than they do. It aggravates 'em. You're not gonna change any of them by talkin' right, they've got to want to learn themselves, and when they don't want to learn there's nothing you can do but keep your mouth shut or talk their language." (Calpurnia)

"Link, that boy might go to the chair, but he's not going till the truth's told...And you know what the truth is." (Atticus Finch)

"Mr. Cunningham was part of a mob last night, but he was still a man. Every Mob in every little Southern town is always made up of people you know – doesn't say much for them, does it?" (Atticus Finch)

"Your fancy airs don't come to nothin' – your ma'amin' and Miss Mayellerin' don't come to nothin', Mr. Finch –" (Mayella Ewell)
